++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Largely cloudy with patchy rain and drizzle. Mild.

Today:
A windy and largely cloudy day today. There will be outbreaks of patchy rain, mainly over high ground before a band of heavier and more persistent rain arrives this evening. Feeling milder than recent days. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Tonight:
Outbreaks of persistent and heavy rain will push south-eastwards across the country this evening, with clearer more showery weather arriving overnight. Winds strengthening too. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Wednesday:
A colder day on Wednesday with blustery showers, particularly along northern and western coasts. A chance of the occasional bright spells. Remaining windy. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Showers will ease going into Thursday before a band of rain and snow sweeps through into Friday with strong winds. Further blustery showers on Saturday, some perhaps wintry.
